SIMON & SCHUSTER

Eleven-year-old Casper Tock hates risks, is allergic to adventures and shudders at the thought of unpredictable events. So, it comes as a nasty shock to him when he accidentally stumbles into Rumblestar, an Unmapped Kingdom full of magical beasts.

All Casper wants is to find a way home, but Rumblestar is in trouble. An evil harpy called Morg is sending her followers, the Midnights, into the kingdom to wreak havoc and pave the way for her to steal the Unmapped magic for herself. But Casper cannot turn a blind eye because the future of his own world, he discovers, is bound up with that of the Unmapped Kingdoms.

And so, together with Utterly Thankless, a girl who hates rules and is allergic to behaving, and her miniature dragon, Arlo, Casper embarks upon an adventure full of cloud giants, storm ogres and drizzle hags. Can he, Utterly and Arlo, the unlikelyst of heroes, save the Unmapped Kingdoms and our world from the clutches of Morg and her Midnights?

Midnight Mayhem

How many of Morg's Midnights can you find on both pages?

Virgin BALLOON FLIGHTS

BALLOON FACT FILE

- The first hot air balloon launched in France, in 1783, carrying a duck, a sheep and a cockerel. Devised by French scientist Jean-Francois Pilatre de Rozier, it floated high in the air for 15 minutes.
- Later that year, Pilatre de Rozier and François Laurent d'Arlandes were the first humans to fly in a hot air balloon created out of paper-lined cloth.
- The first Briton to fly was Scottish aviator James Tytler, in 1784.
- In the 70s and 80s, new synthetic materials and lighter burners turned hot air ballooning into a popular sport.
- Sir Richard Branson and Per Linstrand crossed the Atlantic in 1987, at speeds exceeding 130 miles per hour. This was the first successful flight crossing the ocean.
